

ROSENDAHL
COPENHAGEN

2013/2014 COLLECTION

WELCOME

This year, Rosendahl's highly popular Grand Cru family of products celebrates its twentieth anniversary. The introduction of the Grand Cru wine stopper in 1993 heralded the beginning of a series where each product is more than its function, its quality and its design. Instead, the product is enhanced by being part of a greater whole.

Today's Grand Cru series includes a long list of functional products for the table or the kitchen, and this catalogue is designed to show how these products can be used in many different contexts. We create timeless, elegant products that can withstand daily use, but which are at the same time ideal for both large and small celebrations in our lives.

We hope the catalogue will bring new inspiration to your everyday life, your table settings and your cooking, because we believe that design must be useful, while helping to make each and every day more beautiful.

1 ½ tbsp sugar
1 ½ tbsp salt
2 tbsp olive oil
5 cups of water
600 g organic flour
100 g stoned black olives

Dissolve the yeast in a large bowl with the water, sugar, salt and olive oil. Add flour in small quantities while stirring, and mix well.

Pour the mixture into a Grand Cru oven-proof dish and spread olives and rosemary across the dough. Press down a little into the dough and sprinkle with salt. Leave in the fridge for at least 6 hours – or overnight.

Remove the focaccia and place it directly into an oven pre-heated to 210 degrees. Bake for approx. 25 minutes until the bread is golden and crisp.
