TABLE

All our tablecloths, runners, fabric napkins and place mats are OEKO-TEX® labelled to safeguard consumers from exposure to hazardous substances, which, among other things, can cause skin irritation.

COTTON TABLECLOTHS

Our various cotton tablecloths are a great mix of the formal and informal, and they can be used for any occasion when you want an extra special table setting.

All our cotton tablecloths are OEKO-TEX® and Clevercare labelled, as it matters to us to take responsibility for the environment.

ACRYLIC TABLECLOTHS

The JUNA collection of textile tablecloths is made of fabrics with an acrylic coating. Just wipe the tablecloths with a damp cloth after use. They are also machine-washable at 40°C, but do not spin. In addition, some of the acrylic tablecloth has an anti-slip backing to secure it to the table. The tablecloths come in 20-metre rolls with a width of 140 cm. Acrylic tablecloths should be ironed on the reverse; if they are non-slip, we recommend ironing through a towel.

DAMASK TABLECLOTHS

The word damask derives from the city of Damascus, from which the early Crusaders brought beautiful fabrics back to Europe. The designation "damask" denotes a specific weaving method, making the pattern appear with alternating matt and glossy surfaces.

All the designs are coated to be dirt-resistant and liquid-repellent. This makes them easy to maintain, with a long service life. If anything is spilt on the tablecloth, the liquid can easily be absorbed before it penetrates the fabric. The tablecloths are machine washable at 60°C, but we recommend 40°C, as most detergents and the latest washing machines clean the fabric just as well at low temperatures. Line-drying is recommended.

PLACE MATS

Place mats are available in a large number of self-coloured and patterned varieties. They measure 45 x 30 cm and have an acrylic coating on the front and a foam backing. They are easy to wipe clean with a damp cloth.

Please note that the place mats are random cut, so the pattern will vary from one place mat to another. This gives them a contemporary look, but also avoids wasting a lot of material.

RÅ

Rå is a range of textiles made of 100% cotton with leather detail and metal rivets for a raw, rustic look. JUNA developed the Rå range in collaboration with chef Jesper Vollmer, creating a collection of contemporary textiles for the kitchen and table.

The collection consists of a table cloth, place mats, bread bag, tea towels, aprons, pot holders and oven gloves. The collection also includes place mats made of 100% Buffalo hide; this raw, unprocessed quality fits in perfectly with the other products.

There is also a sustainable picnic blanket made from 120 recycled plastic bottles and a practical, stylish picnic bag in a choice of two colours.

All the table cloths, place mats, tea towels, barbecue/pot holders, aprons, bread bags and picnic bags (excluding leather and picnic blanket) are OEKO-TEX® labelled. This label is intended to safeguard consumers from exposure to hazardous substances, which, among other things, can cause skin irritation.
